MEETING AT CINCINNATI

Executive Session Last Night Discussed Plans—President Westheimer on the Lawless Saloon.

Cincinnati, May 24.—An aggressive campaign against the sumptuary laws was planned by the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association tonight at the conference of the state presidents' organization. Previously the delegates to the annual convention listened to an address in which some urged that the association members had remained too long on the defensive and that a firm stand is to be taken for the enactment and enforcement of regulatory statutes by which disreputable saloons may be eliminated.

The conference tonight was executive but Morrie Westheimer, president of the association, said the meeting was to plan national action against the prohibition movement.

"No business on earth is more embarrassed and handicapped by constantly changing and increasingly oppressive laws than ours," said President Westheimer. "We read our papers with the dread of the legislature ever before us. From day to day and year to year we face an ever-growing multiplicity of law controlling the manufacture and sale of our products, from the moment the grain is weighed into the hopper at the distillery under the supervision of a United States storekeeper to the time the consumer quenches his thirst under the watchful eye of the local ordinance which attempt to say at what hour, at what place and under what conditions one may take a drink."

"Prohibition is on trial today at the bar of public opinion. We are proving our case; we have shown by official statistics that prohibition does not prohibit; we have shown the increase of lawlessness in 'dry' territory."

The speaker said it would be proved conclusively that license and regulation "make for temperance, and that all movements for honest reform must be based on 'We must,' he continued, 'absolutely eliminate from the business the very small number of retail liquor dealers who, through ignorance and viciousness, or through desire for illegitimate gain, conduct their places in defiance of the law."

"Our pride as good American citizens, and as merchants, as well as our desire for permanent prosperity, should stimulate us to refuse to sell goods to any man who so conducts his place of business as to bring just criticism on the business as a whole."

A GOOD ONE ON THE SPEAKER.

Washington, May 24.—Representative Norris, of Nebraska, insurgent, took occasion in a speech on the sundry bill in the house today to appeal from the speaker's decision at a banquet recently that the "insurgents should be hanged." Norris suggested that the declaration was made at a New York banquet, and at a late hour, which might account for the "probable condition" of the speaker.

MEETING AT CINCINNATI

Washington, May 24.—The president was never called upon to go to my district to save my scalp," angrily shouted Macdon, of Arkansas, in the house today, when Tawney, of Minnesota, taunted him with having gone home because he was afraid his constituency would not send him back to congress. He referred to Taft's western trip and his visit to Winona the home of Tawney, to make a political speech designed to aid the Minnesota member. Although Macdon's time had expired his wrath had been aroused to such a pitch that he would not take his seat until warned that sergeant at arms would compel him.

Tawney said in view of Macdon's "great indignation," he would not say anything in reply.

This heated colloquy occurred in connection with the discussion of the amendment to the sundry civil bill.

TRAGEDY OF THE LAKES

Two Steel Steamers Collided Off
Point Aux Barques, Lake Huron and the Frank H. Goodyear Went Down.

Port Huron, Mich., May 24.—The families and friends of the missing eighteen members of the crew of the ill-fated steamer Frank H. Goodyear, which sank Monday morning off Point Aux Barques, Lake Huron, after being rammed amidship by the steamer James B. Wood, tonight practically gave up all hope of any of the missing party being rescued.

The steamer Sir William Siemens, which is said to have picked up some of the missing crew passed here and made no report of having found any survivors aboard. The four rescued members of the crew have gone to the Goodyear's headquarters in Cleveland and Mrs. Emma Bassett, the only other survivor is still in Port Huron.

The collision occurred about five o'clock Monday morning. The Goodyear was operated by Mitchell & Co., of Cleveland. She was coming down from Lake Superior laden with ore.

The Wood was owned by the Great Western Transportation Company, of Cleveland. She was going up light. Heavy fog and fog was held largely responsible for the accident.

The Wood tow was stove in, but the vessel kept afloat. Five were picked up by a yawl, and later four were sent to Cleveland. They are: Captain Hemminger, of Chicago; Mich., William E. Grant, second engineer of Canonsville, Mich.; Frank Mellock, fireman, South Chicago; F. E. Bassett, steward, Algonquin; Mrs. Emma Bassett, porter, of Algonquin.

The Wood searched seven hours for more, but was compelled to put in here for fear of sinking. Many of the Goodyear's crew were killed by falling hatch. All had life preservers when the vessel sank. The Goodyear's cook had his baby dashed from his arms by a falling hatch and the infant was lost.

Both were steel vessels. The Goodyear was practically broken in two. It is impossible tonight to get an accurate list of the missing. Following is a partial list:

Mrs. Lillian Bassett, wife of the cook.
John Bassett, three years old.
Ges Schatz, first mate.
Archibald Fuller, second mate.
All of the above were from Algonquin.

Chief Engineer John Gibson; Wheelmen Jacob Piergisi, South Chicago; John Papp, Cleveland; Watchman William Pitt, Midland, Ont.; William Schult, Milwaukee; Deckhand, Louis Kramer, Iver Carter, Kenosha, Frank Jankovitz, Chicago; Oilers, William Rowert, Carsonville, Mich.; and Howard Shook of Ausable, Mich.; Firemen Casperslaw Klubozsko, South Chicago, and Ernest Street, of Kenosha.

The vessel carried a crew of twenty-three.

LORIMER IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 24.—Senator Lorimer, of Illinois, who is in Washington preparing data relating to the charges that bribery was resorted to in his election to the senate, worked until late tonight on the information and at midnight was not prepared to make any statement. —WILL FINISH TOMORROW,
AND JUDGE WILL GIVE DE-CISION AT ONCE.

Chicago, May 24.—Declaring that there is no Illinois statute regulating the election of United States senators and arguing, therefore, that there was no law violation if Lee O'Neil Browne, as charged, paid Representative White to vote for William Lorimer, Attorney W. S. Forrest continued his efforts here today to have the bribery indictments against Browne quashed.

Forrest expects to finish his arguments tomorrow. States Attorney Wadman will consume an hour in his reply.

Judge McSorley said he will then give a decision without delay. If the indictment is sustained there is an indication that the selection of the jury will begin tomorrow afternoon.

A SENSATIONAL FLIGHT

Glen H. Curtis Will Try to Go From Albany to New York in His Aeroplane.

New York, May 24.—Glen H. Curtis will attempt Thursday the most ambitious flight over water that has ever been essayed in an aeroplane. Under the terms of the competition offered by the New York World he will try to fly from Albany to New York with one stop, although two stops are allowed. A prize of $10,000 is offered.

The distance by rail is 142 miles, but by water it is estimated by Hudson river captains, to be probably 150 miles. The longest cross country flight officially recorded is 125 miles, made by Paulhan, April 18, from Orleans to Arcis Sur Arcis, Aube.

Curtis will use a 50 horse power biplane and plans to descend at the Battery in New York. He plans to leave Albany at 4 a. m. and expects to break his flight somewhere in the neighborhood of Poughkeepsie. His machine will weigh 1,000 pounds, including the weight of pilot, 145 pounds.

The next convention will meet at Geneva, Switzerland, in 1912.

AMENDMENT TO
RAILROAD BILLDEBATED ALL DAY IN SENATE YESTERDAY—OFFERED BY CUMMINS.

A SUBSTITUTE OFFERED

Amendment Deals With Putting in Effect of Railroad Freight
Rates—Many Democrats
For It.

Washington, May 24.—The Cummins amendment to the railroad bill prohibiting the putting into effect of increases in railroad rates until they shall have been approved by the interstate commerce commission was before the senate throughout the day. Arguments in favor of the amendment were made by Cummins, Borah and Bellamy.

Toward the end of the session Martin suggested an amendment to the Cummins provision requiring the commission to pass upon all increases within six months after their filing. This was favorably received by many senators.

Aldrich and his followers announced their willingness to accept it, and Deliver and Cummins indicated a favorable inclination. A number of Democrats were for it. Many senators predicted its acceptance. Another feature of the proposed compromise is that the sections relating to capitalization shall be eliminated.

Much difference of opinion regarding the Martin amendment arose as to whether the old rates or new would be in effect in six months if the commission failed to reach a conclusion within that time. Martin contended that the old rates would continue. The point was not settled.

The hope for a vote today on the Cummins amendment was shattered by the announcement that La Follette wished to be heard in support of the provision.

RATE REDUCTIONS
ARE ORDEREDCOMMISSION HOLDS CERTAIN
RATES BETWEEN CINCINNATI AND CHATTANOOGA TO BE UNREASONABLE.

Washington, May 24.—Material reductions upon numerous classes of freight between Cincinnati and Chattanooga were ordered today by the interstate commerce commission. The reductions are effective July 15. The order was issued on complaint of the Cincinnati shippers. The decision naturally effects Chicago shipments to the south via Cincinnati.

The burden of the complaints was that the rates from the central west represented by Chicago and Cincinnati to various points southwest are too high as compared with the rates upon the same classes from points of origin in the east to the same points of destination in the south.

It is held by the commission that it is not apparent that the rates from the east discriminate against the west although it was conceded that the rates from Cincinnati to Chattanooga were unreasonable.

Officers Are Re-Elected With Probably One Exception.

James M. Lynch, president, was probably re-elected by 7,000, while Secretary J. W. Hayes' majority may reach 10,000.

WAR COULD HAVE BEEN AVERTEDMCKINLEY'S FORMER PRIVATE SECRETARY TELLS WHY
FORMER THOUGHT GREAT-EST SORROW OF HIS LIFE.

Columbus, May 24.—The declaration by Senator Dewey in the senate Monday, that McKinley was forced into war with Spain was corroborated by James Boyle, who, when McKinley was governor of Ohio, was his private secretary.

Boyle says that once, on meeting McKinley, the president said to him that the war was wholly unnecessary; that it would not have occurred but for some hot heads high in congress, and the yellow press. He said he had stood out against it with all his strength and was finally swept away with the popular sentiment. He says McKinley told him negotiations were well advanced for a settlement with all that Cuba could ask, and would have been brought to a successful conclusion, no doubt, if the war clamor could have been withstood a little longer.

Boyle said: "The president told me that the knowledge that the war could have been prevented and he had not been successful in doing it, was the greatest sorrow of his life."

Magill said it was impossible to state the amount involved in the alleged manipulations, but that it may reach a million, that 200 witnesses will be summoned, some from the Pacific coast, and that the grand jury which reconvenes Thursday, may be in session a month.

JAMES DARLING
IS CRITICIZEDHIS SPEECH AGAINST STATUTE OF GENERAL LEE IS DE-
NOUNCED BY COL. WATROUS
U. S. A., RETIRED.

Milwaukee, May 24.—Lieutenant Colonel Jerome A. Watrous, retired, criticizes James Darling, of Chicago, for his protest against the installation of the statue of Robert E. Lee in the Hall of Fame, made at Freeport, Ill., yesterday.

Watrous says: "Futuring's last advance on a dead enemy and his dead flag, uniform and the Confederacy, recalls Senator James H. Gordon's recent remark about that class in the south that is still carrying on the war of the rebellion. The old senator, himself a gallant Confederate soldier, called the rampant fighting class that hops into the limelight on the slightest provocation to keep up the bitter feeling between the sections, 'blab mouths'; adding that they had small part in the war, and now have little influence. Darling's fresh outbreak is proof that we have at least one of Gordon's blab mouths in the north. Darling's style of patriotism is the veriest sham."
